

PIERRE LOTI HOTEL – E-Brochure

Hotel Pierre Loti, in Sultanahmet, welcomes its guests through its open doors with a flourish of renowned Turkish hospitality in the heart of a city where east and west collide. This unique and charming city, admired by all who visit her and indeed by the rest of the world, has been the starting point of many important historical events and the very cradle of civilisations. Stretching across two continents divided by the mighty Bosphorus river, Istanbul unites a plethora of differing cultures, religions and ethnicities whilst retaining the ruins and traces of past empires in its colourful streets. All this exists peacefully and untouched amidst a growing modernity.

Instructions - by car from Ataturk International Airport

- Leaving the airport, turn right at the first intersection, and follow signs to Sirkeci/Sahilyolu
- You will come to a roundabout with a big fountain in the middle; turn left and follow the signs to Sirkeci
- Drive straight along the seaside road for approximately 17 kilometres ( 11 miles ); turn left at the first sign for Sultanahmet
- Go under the small iron railway bridge, then take the first left
- Continue for 400 metres and take the fifth turn on the right (at Kumkapi Police Station)
- Continue for 500 metres and Pierre Loti Hotel is on the right (opposite Eminonu Town Hall)

Transportation from Ataturk International Airport

Istanbul is easily accessible by air and is served by a number of major airlines through Istanbul Atatürk International Airport which is a 20 minute journey (18 kilometres/12 miles) from Pierre Loti Hotel. Taxis are readily available at the airport just outside arrivals. Also, the hotel offers a private return transfer service. Pierre Loti Hotel is located in the old city centre and is conveniently linked to all major highways. There are also metro and tramlines via Aksaray from the Airport to Cemberlitas tram stop, a simple one-change journey that takes approximately 35 minutes.

Airport transfer services provided by Pierre Loti Hotel

The airport transfer service is only available for bookings made directly through our website and is a one-way service for stay of 3 or more nights . For more information please do not hesitate to contact us.
